Psalm 150 setting by Stanford

THE BIDDING given by The Resident Chaplain

We come together in the presence of Almighty God to give thanks for the work of the Aircrew Association and to lay up the standard of the ACA. We honour the many from all three services who are currently serving or have served in the Air Forces of the United Kingdom and those Nations allied to the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth. Especially we give thanks for all those who gave their lives so that we might live in peace and prosperity.

Grant that we may continue the work which you have given us to do and come at last to your everlasting Kingdom. We ask this through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

*The ACA standard borne by Flt Lt Tom Broughton I Eng BEd (Hons)
National Standard Bearer, is paraded into church as all sing:*

HYMN – God is our strength and refuge

God is our strength and refuge,
our present help in trouble;
and we therefore will not fear,
though the earth should change!
Though mountains shake and tremble,
though swirling floods are raging,
God the Lord of hosts is with us evermore!

There is a flowing river,
within God's holy city;
God is in the midst of her
she shall not be moved!
God's help is swiftly given,
thrones vanish at His presence
God the Lord of hosts is with us evermore!

Come, see the works of our Maker,
learn of His deeds all-powerful;
wars will cease across the world
when He shatters the spear!
Be still and know your Creator,
uplift Him in the nations
God the Lord of Hosts is with us evermore!

A Veteran's Hope (by R. Craven)

Read by

Air Commodore Des Richard CBE MRAeS, Chairman ACA

I hope there's a place way up in the Sky
Where veterans can go, when they have to die
A place where a guy can buy a cold beer
For a friend and a comrade whose memory is dear

A place where no doctor or lawyer can tread
Nor a veterans affairs type would ere be caught dead
Just a quaint little place, kind of dark, a little smoke
Where they like to sing and have good joke
The kind of place where a lady could go
And feel safe and protected by the men she would know

There must be a place where old vets go
When their pain is finished and their walk gets slow
Where the whiskey is old and once again we are young
And songs about wars and comrades are sung.
Where you see all the fellows you have known before
And they call out your name as you come through the door
Who would buy you a drink if your thirst should be bad
And say to the others "he was quite a lad".

And then through the mist you spot an old guy
You have not seen in years and you realise the past has gone by
He would nod his head and grin from ear to ear
And say "welcome buddy, I'm pleased that you're here
For this is the place where veterans come
When their journey is over and the war has been won".
They've come here to be happy and get a good rest
This is Heaven my son – you've past the last test.

THE LESSON

Ephesians Chapter 6 Verses 10 to 18

Read by

Colonel John Goodsir CBE, Vice Chairman ACA

Finally my bretheren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.

Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;

And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints.

ADDRESS

by the President of the Aircrew Association,
Air Marshal Peter Walker CB CBE BA

HYMN – The Airmen's hymn

O Ruler of the earth and sky
Be with our airmen when they fly;
And keep them in your loving care,
Amid the perils of the air;
O let our cry come unto Thee
For those who fly o'er land and sea.

Strong son of man, save those who fly;
Swift winged across the uncharted sky;
Each anxious hour and lonely flight,
Serenely challenged day and night,
O'er land and ocean safely bear
All those in peril in the air.

O Holy Spirit, God's own power,
Give in sudden danger's hour;
Bring calm of heart and be Thou near
To those who watch and those who fear.
To Thee will rise our grateful prayer,
Of those who serve Thee in the air.

O Trinity of love and grace,
True guide of all who fly through space;
In peace and war, mid friend or foe,
Be with them where s'over they go;
So shall our praise with heaven blend,
And joyful hearts to Thee ascend.

THE LAYING UP OF THE AIRCREW ASSOCIATION STANDARD

The Chaplain-in-Chief will say:

“It is an ancient and laudable custom to lay-up in the House of God the consecrated emblems of man’s duty and service, there to remain for all time as a reminder of duty well done and of the strength that God supplies”.

The President will say:

“ Venerable Sir, I ask you to receive this Air Crew Association standard for safe lodging in the House of God until such a time as it shall pass to dust like those whose courage and devotion are enshrined in its history”.

The Chaplain-in-Chief will reply:

“We receive this standard into the safe keeping of God’s House, here to hang for all time as a reminder to those who pass by of man’s duty to God, to his Sovereign, and to this country”.

The Chaplain-in-Chief, followed by the President, will proceed to the altar rails where he will receive the standard from the President and lay it upon the Holy Table. The President is then to turn about and resume his seat. The Chaplain-in-Chief will then say the following prayer:

“Almighty and Everlasting God, giver of all strength and grace, and Captain of our Salvation, we offer in this thy House the symbol of man’s faithfulness. May thy blessing rest on those who have borne it, and may it ever remain a sign of that unity which springs from the acceptance of thy grace, who art with the Son and the Holy Spirit, one God, world without end. Amen”.

PRAYERS

Led by the Reverend ‘Bill’ Pegg, Honorary Chaplain ACA

We pray for the peace of the world; for statesmen and rulers that they may have wisdom to know and courage to do what is right; for all who work to improve international relationships, that they may find the true way to reconcile people of different race, colour and creed. And for all men and women the world over that they may have justice and freedom and live in security and peace. These prayers we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Amen

We also pray for all who suffer as a result of war; for the injured and disabled, the mentally distressed, for those who mourn their dead, those who have lost husband or wife, children or parents, and especially for those who have no hope in Christ to sustain them in their grief. This prayer we ask through Jesus Christ Our Lord.

Amen

Hear us, O Lord, as we pray for your Blessing upon our Gracious Queen Elizabeth, the Royal Family, our Houses of Parliament and our Commonwealth. We add our prayers for all who serve in our Armed Forces at home or abroad, on land, sea, or in the air, as they strive to keep the peace and defend the right. We also pray for all ordinary men and women who aim to live a life of goodness and love. These prayers we ask through Jesus Christ Our Lord.

Amen

May we now pray together for all young people and the future of all the nations represented here today.

All. Father of all, we pray for your blessing on young people, on our children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, deliver them from the false and fatal attractions of a faithless world and all who would exploit their youth and innocence. Send into your vineyards labourers who will guide our young into the ways of moral goodness, truth and love that they may come to know and enjoy that life which Christ died to give us. Lord God hear and grant our prayer.

Amen

THE ACT OF REMEMBRANCE

The Honorary Chaplain ACA says:

Let us remember before God,
and commend to his sure keeping;
those who have died for their country in conflict;
those whom we knew, and whose memory we treasure;
and all who have lived and died in the service of humanity.

They shall grow not old as we that are left grow old:
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.

At the going down of the sun and in the morning
We will remember them.

All We will remember them.
