2012 Behind the Scenes Aviation Events in the Heart of Lincolnshire

discovernk
in the heart of Lincolnshire

Three unique aviation events will take place in North Kesteven between March and October 2012. From a tour of the prestigious College Hall, RAF Cranwell, to a one-off look behind the scenes at RAF Digby and RAF Waddington, the district has a vast aviation heritage for all to marvel and experience!

1. RAF Cranwell

23 March 2012, 9.30am - 3.30pm

You will start your visit to RAF Cranwell and RAF College Cranwell (historically the first military air academy in the world) with refreshments and welcome, followed by a tour taking in key points of the station. After lunch in the Sergeants' Mess, you will transfer to College Hall for a tour of this prestigious, historic building and refreshments.

Tickets: £15 per person including lunch and refreshments.

2. RAF Digby

25 May 2012, 9.30am - 3.30pm

Take part in a guided tour around RAF Digby, enjoy lunch and refreshments in the Sergeants' Mess, find out about the history of the station and pay a visit to the Lima Sector Operations Room. Unique amongst the RAF stations in Lincolnshire's Bomber County, the museum has been restored to its former war-time role when it was responsible for directing fighter aircraft in the county during the Battle of Britain in 1940.

Tickets: £15 per person including lunch and refreshments.

There will be a small amount of walking required on this event.

3. RAF Waddington

5 October 2012, 9.30am - 3.30pm

Go behind the scenes at another one of North Kesteven's active air bases – RAF Waddington. After morning refreshments, an introduction by personnel and a talk about the history of the station will be given followed by lunch and a look around their Heritage Room. From the days of training aircrew in preparation for flying on the front line to the recent recovery of a Lancaster in Scotland, there's lots to see.

Tickets: £15 per person including lunch and refreshments.
